a spectacle which, upon one having the interests of English prestige and English jus tice in the Rest at heart, would produce a very painful impression. To an unprejudiced onlooker or passing visitor who might have had the good fortune for himself and the bad fortune for un to look in to the Supreme Court at that particular moment, it would appear that an altercation was being carried on between the Chief Justice and the Registrar more in keeping with the character of a street row than with that of a discussion in an English Court of Justice. To snybody unacquainted with the characters of the persons concerned, or uninformed regarding the details which seemed to form the subject of so much irritation, it would appear that the attack was a gratuitous one, persistently made by the superior officer apon his subordinate. The studiously acrimonious tone in which neither the agents nor those likely to be

Colonel Geddes, 27th Inniskillings, left for Japan to-day by the P. and O. steamer Sunda on two months' leave of absence.

A COMPETITIVE examination for the vacant posts of Usher and Assistant Usher in the Magistracy, will be held at noon on Wednesday, the 4th August, at the Council Chamber, Government Office.

Consequent on the departure of Mr C. V. Creagh on Saturday last for England, on leave, the following changes amongst Covernment officials have been sanctioned. Mr J. J. Francis takes his seat on the Magisterial Beach ; Mr G. Horspool, Chief Inspector, will be the recognized head of the Police until the arrival of Captain Deane, who is expected about the 5th proz. Mr J. P. McEuen is appointed Acting Superintendent of the Fire Brigade, and Mr J. Parker, Secretary, will do dair as Acting Assistant Superintendent in place of Mr

THE mishap that occurred a few days ago to the Haeskin had been belegraphed to Shanghal and had been exaggerated to a total wreck, and was so reported in the Sharghai papers when the last mail left that port, although they remarked that.

We are very torupulous about expressing on off-hand opinion on matters which procoed within the recesses of the Supreme Court, or about interfering in matters which do not concern us; but we have no hesitation in saying that it is for the interout of the community that a scene so disgraceful and so subversive of our preconceived ideas of the way in which justice should be administered in an English Law Court, should be proclaimed to the Fnglish community, in order that some steps should be taken towards obviating its repetition and preventing our reputation for judicial impartiality and diguity deteriorating in the eyes of the Chinese. The Registrar and the Chief Justice very fiatly contradicted one another, or, as we should say in plain English, called each other liars; but as to whose assertion was the correct one we are incapable of speaking, and can only say that the effect produced by the words was a very startling one on the heavers. Three successive times did the Registrar band papers in Bankrul toy to the Obief Justice, and three times successively did the Chief Justice hand back the papers to the Registrar with the remark that he ought to certify that the papers were in order and correct and not merely express a belief to that effect. At the same time, and repeatedly during the course of the sitting, the Ohiof Justice alluded to the late Mr Alexander as having been a Registrar whom the present Regis trar might advantageously take as his model He taunted the Registrar first with knowing everything, and, later on, inconsistently taunted him with not knowing his business. He also accused the Registrar of having found fault with his decisions; he hinted at his having written for the papers; he remarked that what the Registrar euphoniously chose to call irregularities were errors arising from ignorance; and finally concluded by calling the Registrar his Clerk, entirely forgetting that by statutory provision a clerkship attached to the Chief Justice has been created distinct from the Registrarship, and is at present occupied by Mr Mossop, who is absent in Japan. How in the face of these facts the Chief Justice could have made such a statement we do not know, unless it was for the purpose of outrageously insulting and humiliating an official who was incapable of retorting. When the Chief Justice referred to the his Lordship's pardon and said that if he resign. His Lordship with much emphasis said he wished he would resign. The Registrar said the Chief Justice had taken one of the most extraordinary scenes, derogatory in the highest degree to the tration of Justice—came to a welcome close. It is impossible to convey by means of language a sufficiently adequate impression

It may be remarked here that the publication even of a summary of accounts relating to the Tung Wa Hospital is a step in the right direction. By Ordinance 3 of 1870 proper books of account must be kept, verified, and be open to Government inspection; but there is no stipulation as to the accounts being published. It would be interesting to know what part "festal meats" play in this "eleemosynary corporation."

THE discussion on the subject of constructing a Railway to the Gap goes on with vigour. Mr Danby's elaborate examination of the scheme first proposed leads us to believe that the direct route, if practicable, would be the more satisfactory line; but figures referring to passengers are far too low. The higher levels of Hongkong may China, and there is no question but that large numbers of residents and visitors passing through would go up the Hill to get view, a gulp of fresh air and (in the event of there being a restaurant there) probably a mouthful of something else. In the meantime, however, Mr Alford still has the merit. as we said, of having broken the ice; and we shall now await the description of Mr | with the supposed cause that had brought Danby's practicable scheme. The question suggested by Mr Smith, whether the line should be on the model of American or English engineers, though important, may be left until such time as the plant has to be ordered and supplied.

OUR Correspondent at Peking, under date of the 6th instant, sends us the following:---"Yesterday, the various Legations received a communication from the Tsung-le Yamen, stating that the sentence of death passed upon Chung How had been annulled, but that the ex-Ambassador was to be detained in prison awaiting the result of the Marquis of Tseng's negotiations at St. Petersburg-This is supposed to result in the pardon of decree has not yet been published in the Peking Gazette.-The first wife of Prince Kung, who was a sister of the present Emperor's mother, died a few days ago, in consequence of which the Prince will go into mourning and retire from office for some time. -Up to date the weather has been very cool, but rain has set in, and for the last fortnight we have scarcely had a dry day. The roads are nearly impassable, and half of the foreign residents have gone to the mountains." It is worthy of remark that many of the decrees that emanate from the Throne regarding foreigners are often slow in finding their way into the official Gazette.

Some correspondence is published in the Gazette concerning the Fire Brigade Department. The late Hon. Chas. May reported, in February, 1875, the desire of the shop-keepers of Yau-mah-ti, British Kowloos, to form a Volunteer Fire Brigade, and to subscribe a sum which would probably amount to $200 toward the purchase of a suitable fire-engine and equipment; and then the Superintendent, as this appeared to him a very desirable thing to unprepared state of the country war would encourage, and as it was hoped that the example might lead to similar formations at other large villages in the Colony, recommended the subject to the favourable consideration of the Governor, and saked that a sum not exceeding $200 might be authorised by Government to add to the amount of the subscription, the total (say $400) being sufficient to purchase a suitable engine hose and equipment. He also asked that he might be authorised to expend a sum not exceeding $60 to furnish uniform jackets, trousers, and bamboo hats for 25 volunteers, and that the one European constable and two Chinese Constables atationed at Yau-mah-ti might act as foremen, receiving the usual extra pay, the former $4.50, the latter $1.50 per month. The Asalstant Superintendent concurred with Mr May in this recommendation, which was approved by the Governor. In September, 1875, Mr May made a similar application on behalf of the inhabitants of Aberdeen, who had subscribed the sum of $100 towards | Governor. the primary cost of establishing a Brigade. The Government was assured that the total cost for first outlay would not exceed $450, inclusive of fire-engine $250, hose, implements and clothing for 25 Volunteers. This and the extra pay permanent, as in the previous case, were approved. On the 19th July instant, Mr Creagh, Acting hong firm. Superintendent, Fire Brigade, applied for authority to supply 100 suits of uniform at | Wai Kwong) of the Tun-shin-t'ong a probable cost of $150 to some of the Chi- (rentier). nese Volunteer firemen who have worn their present clothes for three years. " It has been customary," he remarks "to supply the Volunteers with uniform from time to time from the Departmental store, but I can find no written authority for sanctioning uniform to Volunteers without special permission." This application was also approved by the Governor.

Coz. Gogdon's trip to China has been fruitful of many surmises, but this, which is from the Shanghai Mercury, is really a gem; it is the most original we have had as yet. Can anybody invent something more ridiculous to cap it? We doubt it, very much:-It is rumoured up North that Col. Gordon came to China by invitation of Mr Robert Hart, and that he is to succeed that gentleman as Inspector General.

THE steamship Glendos left London on the 16th inst. for Shanghai and wayports. The steamship Glenarthey was detained owing to one of her boilers being out of order.

Hongkong will readily perceive:-In tracing the history of the Volunteer movement from its origin up to the present time His Lordship remarked that Volunteering was a powerful stimulus to the sentiment of patriotism without which no community could hold together, and classes in England, of all shades of political opinion, agreed in sympathy for and support to the Volunteer cause. The most important and the most successful innovation of our age had been altogether the work of outsiders, encouraged to a certain extent by men in power, but in the main left to stand or fall by its own merits.

there can be little doubt that Mr Danby's Ma Brenan, H.B.M.'s Acting Chinese Secretary of Legation at Peking, left Foochow for Amoy per steamship Namos on the 14th instant. SAYS the N. O. Daily News:-

The news we have published from Peking since the decree was issued temporarily pardoning Chiung How has been of a nature to warrant the belief that the Russo-Chinese difficulty would be amicably settled. It seems, however, from a letter we have received from the capital that matters are not progressing as smoothly as was expected, and not only does it appear doubtful whether the peace party have made any progress whatever, but the fear is foreshadowed that events may yet assume a most serious phase. Our correspondent says:-The Government is in a very divided state with regard to the Russian affair, and won't take any advice. It is the hope of moderate men that Colonel Gordon will soon arrive, or the Chinese will get into a mess from which they will scarcely escape without the dismemberment of the Empire. A. B. C. AND X. Y. Z. To the Editor of the "CHINA MAIL."

Hongkong, July 24. SIR.-X. Y. Z.'s "breakfast" has disagreed with him; I don't suppose anything else has. I pardon him his sarcasm, of a kind, on my nom de plume, as it is perfectly excusable in one so careless of accuracy as he appears to be in his statement regarding the sailing of the coast steamers, or at least I should say the advertised times of their departure. No steamers, unless perhaps those running to Formosa or Amoy direct, have for some length of time been advertland for either daylight or noon. This very fact I may say has caused some comment. It is perhaps as well that physicians do recommend a substantial breakfast instead of a heavy tiffin in these hot days, as it would be hard to say what damage the latter might do, to a man of X, Y. Z.'s evident temperament in the "small hours" after noon. Allow me to present a P. P. C. card, with best wishes. .

THE CHINA REVIEW.

THE widely-expressed regret at the dis-China and Japan, has induced the publishers of this journal to issue a publication to time such items of information, lists, similar in object and style, but slightly tables and other intelligence as is conmodified in certain details.

THE CHINA REVIEW, or Notes and sons passing through the City, and Queries on the Far East, is issued at in- in connection with we have opened tervals of two months, each number containing about 60 octave pages, occasionally DIRECTORY, applications for enrolment illustrated with lithographs, photographs, woodcuts, &c., should the papers published | into which we are now ready to receive. demand, and the circulation justify, such extra matter.

The subscription is fixed at $6.50 postage paid, per annum, payable by non-residents in Hongkong half-yearly in advance. The publication includes papers original and selected upon the Arts and Sciences, Ethnology, Folklore, Geography, History, Literature, Mythology, Manners and Customs, Natural History, Religion, &c., &c., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibet, the Eastern Archipelego and the "Far East" generally. A more detailed list of subjects upon which contributions are especially invited is incorporated with each number. Original contributions in Chinese, Latin, French, German, Spanish, Italian or Portuguese, are admissible. Endeavours are made to present a resume in each number of the contents of the most recent works bearing on Chinese matters. Great attention is also paid to the Review department.

Notes and Replies are classified together as "Notes" (head references being | St. Peter's Seamen's Church, West Point. given, when furnished, to previous Notes St. or Queries), as are also those queries which though asking for information, furnish new or unpublished details concerning the matter in hand. It is desirable to make the Queries proper as brief and as much to the point as possible.

The China Review for July and August, 1875, is at hand. It says that forty-two essays were sent in to compete for the best paper on the advantages of Christianity for the development of a State. All our learned societies should subscribe to this scholarly and enterprising Review. It is a sixty paged, bi-monthly, repertory of what scholars are ascertaining about China. lecture on Chinese Poetry in this volume is alone worth the price of the Review. Trubner's Oriental Record contains the following notice of the China Review :- " This Is the title of a publication, the first number of which has lately reached us from Hongkong, where it has been set on foot as in some respects a continuation of Notes and Queries on China and Japan, the extinction of which useful serial a year or two ago has been much regretted in Europe as well as &c.-T. The great degree of attention that has been bestowed of late years upon the investigation of Chinese literature, aptiquities, and social developments, to say nothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accumulation of important stores of information, rendering some such channel of publicity as is now provided extremely desirable : and contributions of much interest may fairly be looked for from the members of the foreign consular services, the Chinese Customs' corps, and the missionary body among whom a high degree of Chinese scholarship is now assiduously cultivated, and who are severally represented in the first number of the Keview by papers highly creditable to their respective authors. C. Bowra, is not only historically valuable, but is also distinguished by its literary grace. Beside notices of new books relating to China and the East, which will be a useful feature of the Review, if carried out with punctuality and detail, we are glad to notice that "Notes" and "Queries" are destined to find a place in its pages also. It is to be hoped that this opening for contributions on Chinese subjects may evoke a similar degree of literary zeal to that which was displayed during the lifetime of its prede-cessor in the field, and that the China Review may receive the support necessary to insure its continuance. The publication is intended to appear every two months, and will PARCELS. The public is reminded that, there is no such thing as Parcel Post to Europe, &c. Much trouble and disappointment are caused by persistent attempts to send small valuable trifles through the Fans, Curios Articles of Dress, Fancy Work, and similar presents are continually being refused, the senders having often spent more in Postage than would have paid the freight by stermer. No refund can be made on such parcels of the value of Stamps obliterated before the nature of the contents was discovered.

Money Order Begulations.

1.-Money Orders are exchanged with the United Kingdom, New South Wales Queensland, South Australia and Por Darwin, the Straits Settlements, Western Australia, and (except at Shanghai) with the Japanese Empire. Hongkong also issues orders on Shanghai, and vice versa.

2.—Small sums may be remitted between the other Ports by means of Postage Stamps, subject to a charge of one per cent, for cashing them.

3.—Many Money Orders are supplied to residents at the smaller Ports in this way. An application for an order* is filled up, and is enclosed with a stamped, directed, and unsealed envelope to the Postmaster at the nearest issuing office. The application must be accompanied with the full amount (including commission) in cheque, postage stamps, or other equivalent of cash, and a little margin should be left for variations of exchange. The Postmaster issues the order, sends it on in the envelope, and returns the change, if any, by first opportunity, with a receipt for the letter, if it were to be registered, as it always should be. Care should be taken to send these applications in time, as the Money Order Offices close some hours before the departures of the mails. 4.-No order must exceed £10, or $50, or include any fraction of a penny, nor will more than two such orders be issued to the same person, in favour of the same payee, by the same mail. Orders will be drawn at the current rate of the day and paid at the rate of the day when the advice arrived. . The commission is as follows:----Orders on the United Kingdom. Up to £2..... 18 cents.

~,, £5......36 ,, " £10.....72 " Local and Intercolonial Orders.

Hongkong and Shanghal. 6.—Names must be given in full (except when there is more than one Christian name) but the name of the Payee need not be given if the order be crossed (as cheques are crossed). It can then be paid only through a Bank, and may afterwards be specially crossed to any Bank.

7.-No order can be paid till the Payee has signed it in the proper place. An order on be transferred to another office on payment of an additional commission In case of loss of an order, nec saity for atopping payment, or the like, application should be made to the nearest Money Order Office for instructions.

8.—If the order be not presented within six months an additional commission will be charged ; if not within twelve months. the money will be forfeited. When the order is once paid no further claim can be entertained.
